

CURTAINMENT OF PASSENGER TRAFFIC AS RESULT OF STRIKE LOOMS AS ROAD MEN MEET TO CONSIDER JOINING WALKOUT

Paralysis of Freight Business in Pittsburgh Practically Complete.

HUNDRED THOUSAND IDLE

Central Railroad of New Jersey Issues Order Suspending All Passenger Travel; Industries Generally Suffering; Situation Is Most Serious.

By Associated Press.

PITTSBURG, April 12.—Curtailed passenger traffic on lines entering Pittsburgh appeared as a possibility of the rail strike at noon today with the report that strikers, engineers and firemen were holding meetings to discuss the advisability of striking with the yardmen, according to strike leaders.

Engineers and firemen in the Conway yards of the Pennsylvania railroad this morning agreed to quit work at 1 o'clock, according to reports reaching here. It is said 800 men will walk out and passenger service will be hampered as many of the engine crews of passenger locomotives were at the meeting.

In addition to engine crews at the Conway yards quitting, reports indicated that shopmen, machinists and men of other crafts in the yards numbering about 1,800 would walk out.

At the offices of the Pennsylvania lines here no word of a threatened walkout of the engine men and shopmen had been received at 1 o'clock. An absolute embargo has been placed on all freight originating on the Pennsylvania and connecting lines. Shipments will be received only on written permit of railroad representatives where they are of the greatest necessity.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The Central railroad of New Jersey suspended all passenger service at noon today when agents were ordered to stop selling tickets. The roads cover the state of New Jersey and the suspension ordered affects probably 65,000 commuters.

Strikers meeting in Jersey City heard all newspaper men except a reporter from the New York Call, a Socialist paper.

PITTSBURG, April 12.—The railroad freight tieup in the Pittsburgh district was almost complete this morning and passenger traffic was seriously affected because of the strike of switchmen and trainmen. Blast furnaces and other sections of the steel industry were more and more feeling the influence of the strike because of the inability of the railroads to move raw materials and more than 100,000 men, it was estimated, were already out of work.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad, Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the Pennsylvania Lines West were the greatest sufferers, although the strike in the Pitsburg yards of the Pennsylvania Lines East last night hampered operations in that direction.

Until today the strike was confined to yardmen and trainmen but this morning it became known that shopmen had been taking strike votes and in some places they were expected to join the men already out.

Production of coke in the Connellsville region has slumped to less than one-half of normal and many companies ordered mines and ovens closed. At Connellsville the public issued a statement that they had decided to "stand pat" on the wage demands of last July and that "no trains will be handled in or out of Connellsville except passenger trains."

There was little change in the Shenango valley where mills and blast furnaces were compelled to close on Saturday. Over 6,000 men, it was stated, already were idle at Sharon while others were out at Farrell and New Castle. Through freight service on the Erie railroad was practically at a standstill.

No disorders were reported from any points, the men simply leaving their places or failing to report for work.

COLUMBUS, O., April 12.—Return of switchmen to work in the local yards in any considerable number did not materialize today. Of 150 men employed on the first strike in the Pennsylvania yards not more than 50 showed up for work and several of these quit before noon.

TOLEDO, O., April 12.—To avert a general industrial shut down and suspension of street car service here during the strike of insurgent railroad workers Mayor Scribner today ordered the confiscation of coal on the Pennsylvania railroad tracks and its diversion to the Toledo Railways & Light company. Fuel prices are reaching new high levels here as the result of the acute shortage caused by the strike. Detroit is drawing heavily on the already low supplies both by interurban lines and light vessels.

SMITHFIELD NEX OUT.

MANY MINES TO CLOSE. One hundred fifty men employed in the Smithfield yards of the Baltimore & Ohio walked out during the forenoon, causing a complete tieup. As a result all mines between Point Marion

HEALTHY GROWTH OF CHRISTIAN CHURCH SHOWN BY REPORTS

Submitted at Annual Meeting Yesterday; Big Increase in Membership; Officers Elected For Year.

At the annual business meeting of the congregation of the Christian church held at the conclusion of services yesterday morning the reports of practically every department and auxiliary of the church were read. These all indicated a very healthy growth during the past fiscal year. Both receipts and disbursements in every activity had increased and comfortable balances were reported in the different treasuries. The Buckner-Hackleman meeting resulted in 45 additions to the membership with others since the close of the revival making a total of 53, not including occasional additions at intervals during the year.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Elders, Benton Boyd and J. L. Kurtz; deacons, Walter P. Schenck, Charles A. Crowley, Walter S. Stummel, S. B. Buttermore, Harry Restofski and J. Melvin Gray; deaconesses, Mrs. H. C. Frisbee, Mrs. Benton Boyd, Mrs. Margaret Renner and Miss Ella Hyatt; trustees, B. M. Swartzwelder, E. T. Norton and Robert Norris; treasurer, George W. Stauder; clerk, H. C. Norton; financial secretary, Harry Restofski; missionary secretary, J. Melvin Gray.

A meeting of the board was held in the afternoon to consider the recommendation of the physical equipment committee which will in turn be submitted to the congregation next Sunday.

WEST PENN HAS SUPPLY

Suspension of Industries Will Materially Aid Power Company.

While the supply of coal at the power plant of the West Penn Power company at Fayette is not large it was said today the company will have sufficient for 10 days or so. The huge pile along the Western Maryland railroad west of the power plant has been exhausted. There is a smaller pile along the river front.

It was reported today the company will call motor trucks into service if it becomes necessary to keep the plant going. Suspension of industries will mean a decrease in the power needs and consequently reduction in the consumption of coal.

TRAFFIC AT A STANDSTILL IN CONNELLVILLE

Conductors and Brakemen Forming Road Crows Join the Walkout.

FREIGHT IS EMBARGOED

Order Issued by Baltimore & Ohio Refusing Outgoing Shipments; Number of Men Affected Said to Be Well Past the Thousand Figure.

The strike situation was much worse here today than on Saturday as the result of the walkout at 6 o'clock last night of the road men, including the brakemen and conductors. The engineers and firemen are still working, but crews cannot be secured to assist these in hauling trains.

No walkout of the remainder of the road men, which it was rumored would take place this morning at 6 o'clock, had occurred and the report was discredited in many places.

While some perishable goods were moved in and out of the Baltimore & Ohio yards here yesterday no other freights were hauled. Everything was at a standstill today. It was said here that the strike had not reached Cumberland.

Passenger service is still running uninterrupted on the Baltimore & Ohio. All trains were within a few minutes of schedule time this morning and some were right up to the minute. At the Pennsylvania ticket office a notice was posted that tickets to New York City and other distant points would be sold subject to delay. Travelers were urged to defer their trips unless they were urgent.

An embargo on all outgoing freight was declared at the Baltimore & Ohio freight office here at 10 o'clock this morning. Up to that time some shipments had been accepted but the embargo was declared to stop a congestion which was sure to result if goods which could not be shipped immediately were accepted.

The transportation force at the freight house was off today, only a few being retained. The clerical force remained at work.

At the Pennsylvania freight house small local shipments were being accepted. This is because the men on the Southwest branch are still at work. No shipments to any outside points will be accepted.

After holding a meeting yesterday afternoon the road men on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, including the brakemen and conductors, walked out at 6 o'clock last night. This action, it is estimated, takes the number of strikers out of the hundreds and runs it up into the thousand column.

At the offices of the company here no accurate figures on the number of men out could be secured. The men claim to have tied up everything and there is no official denial. A look at the yards in this city readily answers the question of how far the strike has affected the freight traffic.

While some trains of perishable goods were moved in and out of the yards yesterday, not a single train had left here today up to noon for either the east or west. There were no signs of activity in the yards whatever.

There was no statement forthcoming from officials. There is nothing that can be done, it seems, as the strikers appear, and claim to be, without a head, but are acting as individuals. Their efforts do not seem entirely directed at the railroad companies but at the government in an effort to have some drastic action taken towards reducing the cost of living.

Connellsville is not expected to feel the effects of the strike immediately as far as any food shortage is concerned. It is the belief that there are sufficient supplies in the city to run for a week without causing any pinch.

A meat car of the Pittsburgh Provision & Packing company, consigned to Clarksburg, W. Va., was unloaded here today. This policy is being adopted by the meat companies practically everywhere. As the goods are perishable and would be delayed in reaching their destinations, no opportunity is being given for them to spoil by lying in yards. Uniontown also has some meat cars. Armour & Company getting a shipment through.

Officials do not believe passenger traffic will be affected by the walkout. As long as these trains continue to run the milk supplies for towns along the roads will be taken care of.

At Dawson yesterday the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie men who left their work at Dickerson Run on Friday night were addressed by J. B. Yoak, Jr., superintendent of the Pittsburgh division and also by P. M. Minnick, assistant general manager. The officials came from Pittsburgh in a special train. The meeting was held in the opera house. Men refused to discuss what transpired at the meeting.

NINE-MONTH TERM, DUNBAR TOWNSHIP GRADES, NEXT YEAR

Extension Plan Announced at Banquet of Directors and Teachers.

PRaise FOR TEACHERS

No Better Staff in the County Than That of Superintendent Smith, County Superintendent Carroll Declares; Numerous Subjects Come Up.

Instead of eight months the term of the grade schools of Dunbar township next year will be nine, Superintendent R. K. Smith announced Saturday night at a get-together banquet of members of the board of education and the teaching corps of the township at the Y. M. C. A. at Dickerson Run—pronounced the most elaborate function of its kind of the many that have been served at the association building.

All counted there were 95 persons at the tables. The only one outside the township pale was County Superintendent John S. Carroll of Dunbar. The directors were the hosts. A feast, hilarity in the form of songs and yells, readings by members of the high school faculty and then serious consideration of the educational problems of the township made up the evening's program.

Charles B. Franks, member of the board of education, was master of ceremonies. The announcement of Superintendent Smith of the plan for nine months of school was made in the course of an address on "Next Year—What?" in his talk Mr. Smith led the teachers briefly through the work that is planned for another year. Extension of the term a month in the grades will place them on the same basis as the high school. This action has not yet been officially ratified by the school board but will be shortly.

In no township in the county is there greater efficiency than in Dunbar, County Superintendent Carroll said. None is better organized, said he; none has a better corps of teachers. Mr. Carroll was speaking from personal knowledge, even though during a part of the present term the schools of the township were not under his supervision because of the formation of an independent district. Mr. Carroll's subject was "Reminiscences." He compared the schools of today with those of a quarter of a century ago.

"The Little Foreigner Now, the Big American in the Future," was the theme of P. A. Harsh, principal of the grade schools at Leisnering. W. U. Keller, principal of the East Liberty schools, talked on "Cooperation of All School Factors," dwelling on what can be accomplished when directors, parents, teachers and pupils pull together. "Some School Virtues," was the topic assigned to W. B. Tietbold, principal of the high school, and which he interestingly developed. R. W. Honsberger, also of the high school faculty, talked on "Athletics," in which he has a keen interest, inside and outside the schools.

Interesting parts of the program were readings by Miss Elizabeth Rupp and Miss Ruth Embrey, high school teachers. Elmer's orchestra played. The banquet was served by the Y. M. C. A. under the direction of Secretary Showalter.

School in the grades will close April 30, in the high school May 28. A class of 29 will be graduated from the high school. Commencement will probably be on May 29. The date has not been definitely decided.

About 120 students of the eighth grade are expected to enter the high school next year.

GOVERNMENT WILL ENDEAVOR TO KEEP THE MAILS MOVING

Vigorous Action Considered. Statement From Post Office Department Says.

NAME RAIL BOARD TODAY

On the Strength of This Promise From the White House Senate Interstate Commerce Committee Delays Beginning Probe Into the Strike.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Vigorous action will be taken if there is any interference with the transportation of mails as the result of railroad strikes, it was announced today at the Post Office Department. Reports from the department today were encouraging. Chicago reported that local conditions were "very good" and that the "railway companies handled all mails promptly." A report from New York said conditions had improved and a similar report came from St. Louis.

There will be no investigation of the strike for the present by the Senate Interstate Commerce committee, Chairman Cummins announced today, after receiving assurances at the White House that the railroad labor board would be appointed within 24 hours.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Attorney General Palmer returned to Washington today and immediately conferred with officers of the Department of Justice who have been keeping in close touch with the railroad strike situation. There was no indication what recommendations they laid before the attorney general, but they said the situation was serious.

CHICAGO, April 12.—New York and the East became the railroad strike center of the nation today.

With the strike of the "outlaw" unions waning in the Central states and in the far West fresh additions to their ranks along the eastern seaboard threatened complete paralysis of passenger traffic as well as freight.

At least one line, the Central railroad of New Jersey, has cancelled all passenger schedules, while others, including the Pennsylvania, have been forced to withdraw many trains.

A ray of hope for early settlement of the strike was seen today when Senator Cummins announced that the White House had promised to complete appointment of the railroad board within 24 hours.

Railroad managers affiliated with the Western Managers' association here will not receive delegations of strikers who seek to present the demands formulated yesterday, it was announced at managers headquarters.

From Pittsburgh to New York, north to New England and the south to Washington the strikers' ranks have grown through the last 24 hours. Chicago remains the keystone of the strike and if the walkout can be broken here brotherhood officials say the men in the east will quickly resume their places.

Sunday marked the close of the evangelistic services. The financial quota for the campaign was passed, it was stated.

He had his back to Shultz but instead of stopping the man endeavored to turn into North Pittsburgh street and ran broadside into the Scottsdale car. The running board was crushed somewhat and Shultz's machine was also damaged. He left a $25 forfeit and at a hearing this morning did not deny the charge. He was fined $5 and the remainder of his forfeit returned.

Operating as Usual Today Where Supply of Cars is Available.

YOUNGWOOD YARD OPEN

Permitting a Few Shipments to Go East, but Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and Pennsylvania Move Nothing West, Nor B. & O. in Either Direction.

Thus far there has been no actual suspension of operation at the coke plants of the region but should the strike of the railroad employees be continued for a few days longer, and the movement of both loaded and empty cars be further interfered with, the closing down of open plants will become general throughout the region.

Virtually all plants have a supply of cars on hand today, some having been placed Saturday and others left over from earlier placings which during several days last week were in excess of the ability of the plants to load out. Where there is a lack of cars preparations are being made to seal the ovens in case cars are not available when the charges now burning are ready for drawing. At the hand-drawn plants there will be some stockpiling but this will not be done except as a last resort. At machine-drawn plants which are without cars there will be no alternative except to seal the ovens. There was a partial supply of cars placed last night by the Monongahela and the Pennsylvania railroads in the Lower Connellsville district. Where cars are at hand ovens are being drawn and charged as usual today. If no cars are placed for tomorrow drawing will, of course, cease except where coke is stocked.

With the exception of Youngwood all coke scale yards of the region are closed today. The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie is not moving a pound of coke to the valleys, while the tie-up at Conway yards and the Valley embargoes prevents the Pennsylvania from accepting any coal or coke traffic. The Baltimore & Ohio is not moving anything either east or west. A few cars of coke are going eastward through the Youngwood yards but the conditions in the eastern furnace yards and terminals is such that it is unlikely that these shipments will reach their destination.

A report reached the Uniontown division offices of the Pennsylvania that the men in the Youngwood yards would go on strike during the afternoon.

The disposition of the operators is simply to await developments, meantime placing their plants in such order that they can be closed down on short notice or operations continued according as the situation grows worse or better. The general impression is that the interruption of traffic will be short lived, the break in the strike being taken as an indication that it will not last long in the east.

There is no coke market at all. No offerings are being made, neither are there inquiries for coke. Price is not mentioned nor are predictions made as to what course it will take even should the situation be cleared up within a few days, as there is rather confident expectation that it will be.

PROFITEERING CHARGED

Number of Western Pennsylvanians Arrested for Sugar Hoarding.

Walter J. Phillips, president of the Valley Supply company and the Federal Supply company of Smithton; David C. Stevenson, secretary and treasurer of the two concerns; Harvey L. Donaldson, assistant treasurer and auditor of the Valley Supply company, and J. H. Wagner, a Smithton grocer, were arrested by federal agents last week, charged with profiteering in sugar.

The complaints charged that sugar was sold by the grocer at 22 cents a pound, which had been purchased by the two companies at $15.16 a hundredweight, and sold to the grocer at 18 1/2 cents a pound. This was declared to be a violation of the Lever Act.

A number of other Western Pennsylvanians, whose names were not made public, are understood to have been required to file bond.

GETTING READY FOR OPENING OF THE "BIG LEAGUE" SEASON.

A Conneltsville man does not need to be a baseball "fan" in order to have his interests excited by the "game" the rival teams of the B. & O. Y. M. C. A. are playing. Of course those who are posted on the great national sport, and are anxiously awaiting the ushering in of another season, will follow the contest now on with more zeal than those who don't know the difference between a foul and a home run.

All men in the city, and particularly young men and boys, should be glad that Conneltsville has opportunity to stage such a contest. Even more glad should they be that we have facilities that make possible a test between teams in which the goal to be won will be a gain for both contestants while at the same time enlarging and extending the usefulness of an agency the chief business of which is to be helpful to our young men.

The value of a properly equipped Y. M. C. A. with a large active membership, under the direction of a capable secretary and a live board of directors, has been so convincingly proven that it is no longer an experiment. It has become a necessity in every community that is awake to its obligations to young men. This is true of Conneltsville as every citizen who has come in contact with the Y. M. C. A. well knows. That the benefits are in proportion to the membership is equally well known.

Having already done a splendid work since its restoration in Conneltsville, the management of the local Y. M. C. A. is anxious to make completely equipped in order that every possible service may be rendered young men of the community. To make this possible is a duty of the men of the city. We owe a debt of gratitude to the Baltimore & Ohio management we cannot otherwise pay. At the expenditure of a large sum of money the property has been entirely refitted and partially equipped. This has been done primarily for employees of the company, but with a desire to render the "Y" facilities available to all young men of the city, the company has very generously made provision for the extension of membership privileges to those not in its employ.

In appreciation the very best the men of the city can do is to lend their support to the membership drive by signing up with either the "Nationals" or the "Americans," then add all the interest and enthusiasm they can as "rooters" for their favorite team. This will help to get in good trim for enjoyment of the "big league" season so soon to open.

THE HOME PAPER WORTH AN EGG

After Editor Livingston of the Meyersdale Republican had given notice that the subscription price would be advanced from $2.00 to $2.50 per year, a farmer subscriber was one of the few patrons of the paper to balk at the increased rates. Referring to this incident Editor Livingston made these very apt observations:

"We feel sure our friend has sold many dozen of eggs during the past year at 10 cents a dozen and over. That is five cents and over per egg. He has sold other farm produce at two or three times the prices he obtained when the subscription rate of the paper was still $2.00 per year. Yes, and since it was raised to $2.50 a year, we are not saying that he is getting too much for his produce, considering the increase in the cost of production."

But we are quite sure that the cost of farming has not increased more than the cost of publishing a newspaper. Indeed we doubt very much whether the farmer's expenses have increased as much as the publisher's in the last year. Then why should the farmer object to paying a fraction of a cent more per copy for his weekly newspaper? He has no surplus about selling eggs at five cents a piece, yet kicks at paying less than five cents for the home paper which he and his family are informed about current events, the doings of his neighbors, important announcements, etc., which often are the means of saving him money for him."

Compare the worry, labor and expense of the editor in producing one copy of his paper with the ease with which an old hen lays an egg which costs the farmer almost nothing, and then begrudge the price of one egg in exchange for the good home paper."

Too bad the state highway regulations barring election placards be not extended beyond the highway limits if they did voters would be spared the discomfort of being brought face to face with some more or less unattractive features of the campaign.

If the railroad strike continues very many days somebody is going to be come hungry at the switch.

The refusal of Hoover to wear the Democratic tag no doubt occasions a feeling of relief among other aspirants for leadership of the Lost Cause.

Now that Attorney General Palmer has leaped into the breach caused by the railroad strike we may expect the trouble to be settled with the same despatch and completeness with which he has reduced the high cost of living and righted numerous other wrongs.

State Chairman Sterling and Field Marshal Dumbauld of the Barefooters can sympathize with the chiefs of the "Big Four" brotherhoods who now have an "insurgency" element to deal with.

WORK.

There's never a goal worth the getting but what you must work to attain. You must suffer and bleed for it, cling to your creed for it, Fair, and go at it again.

Success is no whim of the moment, no crown for the indolent brow. You must battle and try for it, otherwise lose it, yet win it somehow.

The pathway to glory is rugged, and many the heartaches you'll know. He who seeks to be master must rise from disaster, Must take as he giveth the blow.

There's no royal highway to splendor, no short cut to fortune or fame. You must faithfully fight for it, dare to be right for it, Falling, yet playing the game.

The test of man's merit is trouble, the proof of his worth is distress. Much as you long for it, man must be strong for it, Work is the door to success.

CHARLES AUGUSTINE, MEMBER OF COMPANY D, ANSWERS LAST CALL

Gassed in France in July, 1918, Uniontown Soldier Falls to Completely Recover.

Charles, Leonidas Augustine, 24 years old, a veteran of the World War, died Saturday afternoon at his home in South Mount Vernon avenue, Uniontown, from the effects of gas received while serving in France as a member of Company D, 119th Infantry.

Augustine was wounded on July 30, 1918, at Chateau Thierry, sustaining an injury in his arm. While in the hospital it developed that he had also been gassed. He was returned from overseas September 29, 1918, and was sent to the hospital at Cape May for treatment. He was discharged from the Army April 10, 1919, and returned home. Augustine, however, never regained his health and following several recurrences of gas became bedfast December 7, 1919, and sank slowly, until the end came Saturday afternoon.

Born December 11, 1895, at High House, the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Augustine, he spent practically all his life in Uniontown and was very popular. On June 3, 1917, Augustine enlisted in Company D, 119th Infantry, at Conneltsville and went into training with that unit at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., embarking for overseas service May 3, 1918.

Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Augustine, and the following brothers and sisters, Altha, Mrs. W. A. Parks, Mrs. Fred Rutter, John, Ernest, Ruth and Irma.

A military funeral in charge of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held at his home Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. E. A. Hodell officiating, assisted by Rev. M. J. Barker. Interment will be in Oak Grove cemetery. Members of old Company D will meet in civilian clothes, at the municipal building, Uniontown, at 1 o'clock.

BAND CONCERT WEEK OFF

Sale of Reservations Changed from Friday to Day of Event.

Instead of Friday of this week the reserved seat sale for the annual concert of the Conneltsville Military band will begin next Monday morning, April 19, at 9 o'clock at Haezel's drug store. The opening of the sale was originally planned for Friday.

The concert will be given at the high school building. The advance sale of tickets indicates there will be a full house. Director John E. Gaster said. The director also gave assurance that the concert will be up to the usual high standard—better, if anything. One of the features will be the appearance of Miss Vera Kaigan of Pittsburgh, a soloist. Miss Kaigan is reputed to be one of the best singers in that city. A band of 65 pieces will play.

If the peace treaty hadn't come along just at a time when everybody was trying to raise the price of a quart of a silk shirt, public opinion might have saved it.

Still another thing about prohibition—you can't throw a party without inviting criticism.

HARRISBURG, April 12.—The general use in Pennsylvania, of flour doped by the chlorine bleaching and nitrous acid processes, has been brought to the attention of the Bureau of Foods, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. A state wide investigation has been ordered by Director James Foust of the bureau, and samples will be collected and analyzed and prosecutions ordered in all cases where the flour is found to have been treated with chlorine gas or nitrous acid.

The complaints indicate that the doped flour is being used almost entirely by the commercial bakers of the state and is being used in bread, pies, rolls and other pastry offered for sale. But little of it is being offered for direct sale to the public.

The flour in question is being shipped into the state from the middle west. Through the bleaching effect of chlorine gas or nitrous acid, flour made from a combination of first and third grade wheats is made to resemble flour made entirely of first grade wheat, both in color and texture. Under the food law of Pennsylvania and numerous decisions of the courts, the commercial baker who uses chlorine bleached flour in his products is equally as guilty as the merchant who sells the flour over his counter to the retail trade.

Chlorine gas is a powerful antiseptic. It was used as a deadly agent in the recent world war. It has a yellowish green color, a peculiar smell and irritates the nostrils very violently when inhaled and exercises a corrosive action upon organic tissues.

The use of chlorine gas or nitrous acid in treating flour has a decidedly harmful effect upon the human body, when products for human consumption are made of the flour and campies will be lifted in every bakery in the state by agents of the food bureau in the campaign which Director Foust has ordered.

PEACE-TIME WORK OF COUNTY CHAPTER, RED CROSS, LAUDED

Red Cross Clippings, the official publication of the Pennsylvania-Delaware division of the American Red Cross, devotes considerable space in its last issue to the work and activities of the Fayette county chapter. The editor of "Clippings" in writing of the work of the chapter says in part:

"Red Cross service is being practically demonstrated through its peace-time program by the Fayette county chapter, which is actively engaged in a most up-to-date type of work since its application and authorization last year to engage in peace-time activities. The remarkable work being accomplished within the boundaries of this chapter is unquestionably due to the outlined policy as adopted by the executive committee of this chapter in the early part of June, 1919. The early plan for this work in the light of present service being rendered, best illustrates the value of preparedness for all forms of Red Cross service. At that time the proposed future policy of the Fayette county chapter covered 15 specific phases of Red Cross work. These have been constantly before the chapter executives and have determined largely the methods of procedure. So thoroughly in harmony with the policy of national headquarters were these forms of service that they were immediately approved by the division office.

"The most recent report from the chapter headquarters lists in detail the principal activities as outlined in the above program, namely: Extension of home service work; organization of public health nursing service and the conducting of classes as provided for in Red Cross regulations. The report shows that all of these activities are in actual operation and filling a great need in Fayette county. Home service work has been extended to all phases of civilian relief activity, while the public health nursing service has become so valuable as adjunct to the community that a third nurse is now contemplated for additional service.

"Ten classes in home hygiene and care of the sick are being conducted in as many different localities throughout the county and are proving not only beneficial but most popular as a Red Cross activity. Language is no barrier, as is demonstrated in the fact that one of the classes is being instructed through an interpreter, and an additional interpreter for extra work is now contemplated.

"The Third Red Cross Roll Call places Fayette county at the very front rank in the division, being the only chapter which exceeded its quota. This fine showing evidences the thorough organization and high efficiency in the way the chapter kept its branches organized and ready for service."

After Grip, "flu" or colds, the kidneys and bladder are often affected—called nephritis, or inflammation of kidneys. This is the red flag of danger—better be wise and check the further inside of kidney disease by obtaining that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's, known as Anuric (anti-uric-acid), because it expels the uric acid poison from the body and removes those palisades such as backache, rheumatism in muscles and joints.

Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

Dr. Pierce's Anuric is many times more potent than lithin and often eliminates uric acid as hot as mules sugar.

MILLERSBURG, PA.—"First I had grip, then pneumonia, then kidney and bladder trouble. Kidney secretion was high colored. I got sick on November 12th, and was laid up until February 1st. I began to use the Anuric Tablets. I told my doctor and he said: 'That's all right, keep on with them; so I did. I am now perfectly well and work hard.'—Wm. D. Schuman, Box 391, Railroad and Market Streets.

NECESSARY TO SAVE WASTE PAPER, SAYS COMMERCE SECRETARY

Can Be Used as Substitute for Wood Pulp in Making Other Grades and for Paper Boxes.

The necessity for saving waste paper of all kinds is the subject of an appeal Secretary of Commerce Alexander has made to the public in which he says: "Waste paper has been called quite a number of times lately to the vital shortage in paper and if the general public could realize how a shortage of paper affects its daily life I feel sure that a saving and utilization of all waste paper would be made."

Many of the better grades of waste paper are used as pure substitutes for ground wood pulp and are used in making all kinds of book, bond, ledger and writing papers. If this kind of waste was not used to some extent, there would be an even greater shortage of wood-pulp from which most of our printing papers and news print is made. The waste paper used in the above list consists of old magazines, periodicals, books and all kinds of printed matter in general. Every pound of this waste that is saved and marketed prevents the use of original wood-pulp made direct from our trees.

The largest tonnage of waste paper is called "common mixed," and consists of any and every sort and scrap of paper, such as newspapers, waste from the offices, stores, public buildings and homes. The chief use of this kind of waste is for paper boxes, roofing and building boards, paper shipping containers (which carry up to one hundred pounds of freight or express) and wrapping paper. More than two million tons of ordinary waste paper are used for boxes and shipping containers alone. The public is so accustomed to having its goods in paper boxes that it would be dumbfounded to find their use seriously curtailed and this is what will happen if we do not look more toward the utilization of waste. The use of waste paper for this purpose prevents the consumption of over one billion feet of lumber annually—and increasing daily. The utilization of waste must keep pace with this to prevent a direct use of our trees for the wood pulp. At the present time there is very little original good pulp used for paperboard boxes.

In addition to the saving of trees in the making of paperboard, there is another very great saving of lumber through the use of paper shipping cases which are used instead of wood boxes. Reports show that it would require more than half a million feet of lumber annually to replace the paper shipping cases now used by almost every manufacturer in the United States.

In most towns and cities are dealers in waste paper and other salvageable material such as rugs, rubber, metals, etc., who will pay a fair price for what otherwise would be thrown away or burned.

FINAL FIRE BOSS TEST

Below Are Questions Submitted to Local Men Last Day.

Following are the final questions put to the men taking the examination in the Ninth District for positions as fire bosses the examination being held in the parochial school hall:

Give the advantages, disadvantages and dangers incident to the use of permissible electric lamps in the bituminous coal mines. Explain and show by a sketch how you would remove gas from the face of an operating entry. Barometer 30 inches, temperature 70 degrees, find the weight of 50 cubic feet of carbon dioxide (C. O. 2).

In a mine worked exclusively with lock safety lamps, what precautions are necessary to safeguard against dangers from the following causes: A—Electric trolley locomotives and wires; B—Electric mining machines; C—Electric pumps and hoists.

How would you proceed to remove a large body of explosive gas from a mine? What dangers are connected therewith and how would you proceed to guard against them?

Is it possible to have an explosion in a mine where a dynamite has never been used? If so, state the probable cause.

Make an estimate of the cost of material for laying a track 1,000 feet in length, "T" iron 40 pounds per yard, length of rail 30 feet, $5 per ton; ties 25 cents each, ties spaced two feet centers, cost of spikes one cent each, spiked bars and bolts 40 cents per pair. Give the cost of each and total cost.

BASEBALL PLAYERS CHAFING, ANXIOUS TO GET INTO ACTION

Trotter Boys Expect to Begin Practice This Afternoon.

RECORD SEASON AHEAD

This year will mark an epoch in baseball of this vicinity. Apparently baseball has a grip on the public as never before. The sport is bound to bloom and its success will grow game after game. No less than five teams will take the field and all are rated first-class amateur or semi-pro. This bunch of tossers does not include the star outfit of the lot, the Connellsville Independents. The five teams that will give the fans of this vicinity an opportunity of witnessing good baseball are Trotter, B. & O. Shops, Sligo Mill, B. & O. Y. M. C. A. and Denals Johnson's black and tan nines. The boys are pulling at the leash to start their training, which has been delayed on account of the recent cold snap.

Impatiently awaiting a touch of "Old Sol's" warm rays are the Trotter boys. They are due to take to the field last week and the delay has only whetted their desire to whip the old horse about the field. If the weather moderates today the boys will get their first practice this afternoon. The B. & O. shopmen have their team lined up. Johnson's brigadiers are nearly ready to play. The "Y" outfit will most likely be ready by next week. The Sligo Mill tossers are a bit slow getting started.

The Connellsville Independents are ready to begin practice as soon as the field is scraped and rolled. This will be attended to this week. Chip Francis has his team selected and is only waiting for the field to be ready. The big drawback on the part of the club is the lack of funds. If this obstacle was cleared this club could feel justly proud of the club and team. The team selected is one of the strongest bunch of baseball players ever gotten together hereabouts. They will be a credit to the old town when they get into action as well as at the end of the season.

If the public will not give the club its much-needed financial aid to get the bleachers and stands for its own comfort they will be compelled to see the games at their own disadvantage, standing or any way they choose except in comfort. If there is any "kick" raised through this lack of seating facilities, fans should bear in mind that they are individually responsible for the absence of any seats. They have been asked time and again to contribute to the fund so the club would be able to give them seats. It is unreasonable for the public to even think that the club should stand this expense. It has devoted time and labor to give the city a fast ball team and will receive no recompense for its efforts, nor does it expect any.

Once the club is started it will take care of itself. That is assured. If there is any one that has any red blood flowing through his body that would like to subscribe towards the stands, he has only to step into the Title & Trust company and give his bit to the treasurer of the club, J. R. McIntyre. The time is getting short, on May 15 the team will play its opening game.

BASEBALL CHIRPS.

The line-up of the Trotter team will be about the same as last year. Those that will slip into the club's new uniforms will be Gene Frazier, Herb Renenberg, Elmer Frazier, Chip Francis, Sam Labiak, Utis Smith, Cliff Crowley, Leo Mullin, Joe Swore, Tom Jones, Louis Runney, and Hobe Fisher. This afternoon they will have their first practice of the season.

The following baseball players, Chip Francis, Frank Horne, Amie Frazier, and Tom Jones are requested to be at the Connellsville Baseball club's headquarters, 407 Second National bank building, between 8:30 and 9 o'clock this evening, without fail.

Saitfield has organized a baseball team for the coming season and is preparing to meet all comers. Officers of the club are J. L. McCracken, president; J. A. Leach, treasurer; W. E. Morgan, secretary; W. J. Burchinal, business manager; S. R. Coffman, transportation manager. The grounds keeper, F. O. Weber, playing manager and captain.

Fully responsive to the touch of spring and in the grip of the baseball fever, a couple dozen Y. M. C. A. junior members hiked out to Fayette Field Saturday to practice the national pastime. Coach Jack Hall put the boys through some scrimmaging, play, so as to get a line on their ability, as the "Y" will have a couple of teams out this year. Some of the boys who practiced were McCormick, McNutt, Soisson, Tumme, Clark, Ross, Edmunds, Engleka, Niss, Jones, Jr., Taylor, Cunningham, Snyder, Donadio, O'Hara and Stummel.

The fast Swissvale Windsors want to book a few games with the Connellsville Independents, to play here Saturdays. Letters are being received daily from all the fast team of the tri-state section seeking dates. This only shows so well the opinion that the managers of fast teams regard the locals.

The Albany club has set the 18th as the limit that Frank Horne may have his contract in, just one week. Frank will not give in unless the club agrees to the raise that he wants. Between you and us, brother, get this: Scene, Fayette Field; time, May 15; the umpire, "The batteries today, Horne and Jones for Connellsville, for Fairbanks.

Wednesday the Pirates open their season with St. Louis, at that city.

HOW OLD-TIME BOXERS IN SPORTSMEN GOT NAMES

The fads and characteristics of those connected in the world of sport, whether in boxing, baseball or other pastimes, apparently has an interesting hold on the followers of the various sports. Take for instance the boxers. How many do you know or have heard of whose name begins with "Kid"? There was "Kid" McCoy, one of the clearest that ever slipped on a glove. When McCoy was a youngster just breaking into the game he took it in a melodrama, a show wherein there was a part played of that of a safe-cracker whose stage name was "Kid" McCoy. This character so fascinated Norman Shelby, that he forthwith took the name of the safe-cracker.

In New York City a decade ago there was a scrapper named "Percy" McIntyre. He was a dangerous lightweight and so ugly that his manager called him "Percy" because he didn't look it. Joe Walcott was called the "Giant Killer" because of his ability to lick so many heavier men than he was. Chicago produced a fighter named George Kirtwin. His nickname was "Mysterious" Kirtwin. George fought in the style that Harry Greb now uses. Jim Corbett was called "Pompadour Jim" and "Gentleman Jim," first because of the way he wore his hair and second because he could wear an open face front with spike tails.

Then Johnny Dundee, the "Scotch Wop." His manager, Scotty Montle, didn't like Joe's last name, Carrara, hence the "Dundee." There was "One Round" Hogan who gained the nickname on account of knocking out his opponents in the first round. Mike Gibbons, the "Phantom," was named so because of his elusive style of boxing. "Bob" Fitzsimmons, "Lanky Bob," was called so because of his awkward style of handling himself in and out of the ring, known in late years as the "Grand Old Man of the Ring." Jim Jeffries was called the "Boiler Maker," as that was his trade.

Of the old-time boxers "Kid" Broad was the cream of them all in eccentricities. One day at the race track the "Kid" was getting all kinds of tips on the stakes, and never picking a winner. So the next man that started to give the "Kid" inside info, the "Kid" chased him with the remark that he would pick his own horses, which he proceeded to do by betting on every horse in the race, and that was about the only time he cashed in on a winner, but at a big loss.

DICKERSON RUN BOWLERS GUESTS AT BANQUET

At the Theatres.

The big chorus with the musical novelty "My Soldier Girl" at the Soisson Theatre tonight.

THE SOISSON.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL"—A tuneful musical comedy in all its dazzling splendor will be the attraction tonight. This new play is brim full of comedy, contains some twenty tuneful numbers, brilliant in its gorgeous scenic effects and novel costumes, offers a splendid cast and bewitching "pony" ballet, what present this sparkling and gay musical novelty in all its merry-making. The story centers about Dixie Harris, a ward of a wealthy Florida who was a producer of theatrical attractions long before the war. Dixie, likewise the colonel, served their country during the late struggle, and while in France a love affair crept into the hearts of Miss Harris and a Lieutenant Carter. The colonel made many friends during his European trip, inviting them to visit his home once the armistice was signed and conditions were such that the majority of the boys and girls would be back in America. The second act finds many of the guests who participated in the festivities at the lawn fete playing leading roles in the rehearsal of the Folies production on a roof of a New York theatre.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE FLAMING CLUE"—With Harry Morey in the leading role, is being presented today. In recent years the detective story has become the most popular form of fiction. From the office boy to the bank president can be found hundreds who spend their spare moments in this diversion. The detective film has been tardy, but with "The Flaming Clue," it comes into its own. Harry T. Morey is a perfect type for a detective hero. He is a composite of the action sleuths and has a personality similar to several real detectives. The feature deals with the capture of a band of counterfeiters and every detail has been worked out in accordance with modern methods of detecting crime. The story is filled with suspense, mystery, action and love.

French Situation Discussed.

Rev. W. B. Purnell presented the cup to the club. It was accepted by Donald Myers, who was acting captain for the Dickerson Run team. After the supper, Charles Harper, a member of the Scales team, issued a challenge to the Dickerson Run team for a game. Harper will pick a team from the league. Dickerson Run accepted the challenge and the game will be rolled some night this week. Following is the last game score and the order in which the teams finished:

BASKETBALL.

The wee-begone expression that Em' Hicks had carried since last Wednesday night has at last disappeared and in its place he sports his usual smile of contentment, for did not his South Side warriors redeem themselves in the return basketball match with the I. C. S. quintet. We'll say they did. The teams clashed in the return match at the armory Saturday and the Preps won in a canter by the score of 34-14. J. Donadio was the star for the Preps, getting nine baskets. Brown kicked in with four more, while Ross and Snyder of the I. C. S. placed two each.

The summary:
I. C. S. S. E. PREPS.
J. Donadio, F. Ross
Miller, F. Dougherty
Frutchie, C. O'Hara
Brown, G. Snyder
May, G. H. Donadio
Substitutions—Sheetz for H. Donadio.

THESE BOYS HAVE A GOOD LINE.

If you happened to drop anchor in a foreign port, and especially when the weather is fine and warm, and you wanted to "hit the beach" real bad, you would probably have to display your wares in a tug-o-war contest before you would be first ashore. The question of first ashore is sometimes settled in this fashion. The ship's company is divided into two watches or four sections. When the ship comes into port, one watch goes ashore. And sometimes, when a question arises as to which watch is entitled to first chance, the captain orders the tug-o-war line broken out. The winners are the first to enjoy the offerings of the tropic, or foreign land, as the case may be.

HOME-MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.
Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Menthol-ized Arine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.
Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germ will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL
HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-Feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.
Bio-Feren is without doubt the greatest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, senile men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.
Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.
Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.
All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.
Seven a day for seven days—wonderful results.

"STRIDE" IS TOLD HOW BAPTISTS HERE RAISED BIG FUND

Methods to Be Followed in Financial Drive Detailed by Associate Director Hicks.

In response to a request to tell
"how it was done" in Connelville when the First Baptist church a recent Sunday raised $75.40 for church expenses and benevolences for four years, under the New World Movement plan, F. W. Hicks, associate director, sent the following letter to "The Stride," an official paper of the Northern Baptists and for publication also in church bulletins:

"Replying to your letter of the 5th inst., briefly, my first suggestion is that the chairman of the minute men be well selected for on him depends the success of many of the campaigns now coming on. In my opinion this man should be a business man if possible, a man who comes in daily contact with business propositions, and is capable in presenting business propositions. These men are usually known in the congregation but very often never take any active part in the work of the church.

"This man will then be able to instruct other minute men in presenting the New World Movement, in a clear, cut, business-like way. This man leads the way and others obtain the vision through him. This has been the success of our teams of minute men.

"Other secrets of the success of the campaign are: Giving the vision to the folks, taking God into it all, talking in faith and working so—not a money-raising but a man-making campaign; minute men, sermons, pictures, personal conversations, canvassing captains first, then teams, then larger groups; great publicity so that no one could escape, through newspapers, letters, cards, pneumographs, conferences, placards on windows, stewardship notices, etc.

"We had teams in the Pittsburg district Sunday, April 11. Our motto is 'Help Others.' We are furnishing quartets and speakers for these meetings. In sections far removed from us, for we believe that the very foundation, yes the entire structure of the New World Movement means to us helping others."

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck.
It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.
Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, sciatica, neuritis, congested sinuses, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.
30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

"And what is more," I added triumphantly, "Barbara Bradford and I had just discovered an opening into it by pushing the wall panel in my room back and then sliding it along. We were inspecting it when we heard the shot in the apartment below. I closed the panel and ran downstairs and have had no opportunity since to investigate, but I am sure the passage is there. I am convinced that it was the sound of voices there that made the whispers. I suspect it was used by whoever left the anonymous notes in the room, and that the person or persons who looted the safes entered and escaped by that means. I would not be surprised if it was not by means of this passageway that the murderer of Miss Luton escaped, after he had left his revolver in the drawer of my dresser."

My great-uncle shook his head perplexedly.

"It sounds improbable—too much like a romance. They do not build modern apartment buildings with secret passageways. Space is far too valuable, and besides, all plans have to be filed with the city's bureau of buildings."

"But it's there," I cried desperately. "I saw it. Barbara Bradford saw it."

"Well," he comforted me, "we will soon find out about it. I have many matters to attend to today, but tomorrow I shall go up to the apartment, and if there is such a passageway I shall find it and see where it leads."

"Then you are not staying in the apartment?"

"No, I shall remain at a hotel until my wife returns."

At this juncture a prison attendant approached and informed him that the time of his visit was up. Imperiously my great-uncle waved the man away. Somehow the possession of great wealth carries with it a manner of expecting obedience from every one that generally is successful. The man withdrew, muttering to himself and left us undisturbed.

"Now tell me about the murder," Mr. Gaston directed.

Concise I stated the facts as I knew them. It was a shock to him to hear that at least two of the trusted attendants at the Granddeck, Wick and the telephone girl, were of the criminal class.

"That, tut, tut," he exclaimed. "Just think of it! That's the worst of living in a big city. You never know what sort of people there are about you. I'll call up Mr. Kent, the owner of the building, this afternoon and have him get rid of them at once."

"Please don't," I cried. "Gorman and I are both convinced that Wick and the girl know something about the murder. Don't do anything to let them know that they are under suspicion. So long as they are employed at the Granddeck we know where to lay hands on them when we want them."

"That's so," he admitted. "I'll say nothing for the present. As I won't be living there until after this is cleared up, it can make no difference. But, look here, young man, why doesn't this Bradford girl come forward and clear you of this charge? She was with you at the time. She knows you didn't do it."

"Because I will not permit her to do so," I replied with heat. "I love Barbara Bradford!"

"That's it, is it?" he commented, giving me a quizzical glance from under his bushy white eyebrows.

"I wouldn't for all the world," I continued, "have her mixed up in this. Her sister is to be married tomorrow, and the scandal might stop the wedding; and besides I'm not going to have it known that she was there alone with me that night in my room. I love her too well for that. Some day I am going to ask her to be my wife. I'll raise his eyebrows."

"And on what do you expect to marry?" he inquired.

"Of course I have said nothing as yet," I hastened to explain. "I've nothing to offer her."

"No," he agreed. "You've nothing to offer her"—and then with a meaningful glance he added a little word that in spite of my predicament made my heart sing with joy and stirred my expectations mightily—"you've nothing to offer her—yet."

"But cheer up," he advised as a parting word of counsel. "I'll get in touch with Gorman and your lawyer as soon as I leave here today, and tomorrow we will find out about that secret passage you think you have discovered."

Companion that I ever had doubted the integrity of his purpose toward me smote as he departed. I tried to think of something to say to express my gratitude to him, to let him know how much I appreciated his coming at once to my aid, but the only thing I could think of slipped from my lips: "I am sorry about the pearls."

"So am I," he answered grimly, and went his way.

One thing now I certainly was sure of—his was not the mastermind that had planned all the criminal deeds, but the mystery of the Granddeck was still as much of a mystery as ever.

CHAPTER XIII.

It was the second day after this—the day set for Claire Bradford's wedding—that in the morning, much earlier than customary, Gorman came to the prison to see me.

I met him jubilantly. My wife's unexpected return to the city and his generous and convincing offers of aid had filled me with new hopes. I trusted, too, that old Rufus' keen eyes quickly would discover the secret passageway now that I had indicated to him where to look for it. I was confidently expecting that the resulting developments quickly would free me from even the suspicion of being a murderer. The minute, however, that I laid eyes on Gorman I knew that something had gone wrong.

"What is it?" I cried. "What's the matter now?"

"You're a wonderful liar, you are," was his surly greeting, "with your pipe dreams about secret passageways and stolen pearls."

"What do you mean?" I replied. I had not the least idea what he was getting at.

"You almost had me believing you," he said savagely. "If it wasn't that I knew that Wick and that girl up there were crooks, I would wash my hands of the whole affair."

"I don't understand," I answered indignantly. "Every statement I have made to you has been the absolute truth."

"Yes, it has," he sneered. Ordinarily I would have resented anyone talking to me in this manner, but I felt that under no circumstances could I afford to quarrel with Gorman. He was the only friend I had in the whole city that I could rely on, excepting of course my great-uncle. I contented myself with merely reassuring him:

"I tell you it is all true—every word of it."

"The old man's home—old Rufus," he responded irrelevantly.

"I know," I replied. "I saw him for a few minutes day before yesterday. He promised to do everything in his power to free me as speedily as possible. After talking with him I am confident that he had nothing whatever to do with any part of the plot. Have you seen him?"

"Yes," said Gorman, significantly. "I've seen him. He looked me up yesterday and we went over the case together. He suggested that we go up to the Granddeck and look over the apartment, and we did. The minute we got to he went to the wall safe and opened it up and—"

"You're a Wonderful Liar, You Are," Was His Surly Greeting.

Gorman stopped short and looked at me. It seemed to me that there were doubt and distrust in his expression.

"Go on," I cried, "what did you find?"

"We found," he said, speaking slowly and putting special emphasis on his third word, "two jewel boxes there, the one with the pearls and the other one."

"What," I cried, aghast at this incredible bit of news, "two jewel cases?"

"Sure we did," he announced triumphantly. "And the pearls were there as safe as when the old man went away. Now what have you got to say to that?"

What could I say?

I knew as positively as I knew that I was alive that on that Saturday when I had opened the wall safe to put away my money there had been but one of the jewel boxes there. I had taken it out and had examined its contents again. With the aid of a lighted match I had explored every corner of the quilt-lined receptacle. The box containing the pearls and the rest of the valuables in the Gaston collection was gone. Now the pearls were safely back there again. How could that be explained? The mystery was too much for me.

There was not the slightest reason for me to believe that Gorman was lying to me now. I had found him in all our dealings straightforward and candid. If he said he had seen great-uncle Rufus find the pearls there it must be so, but how could they have got there? Could it be possible, I wondered, that subconsciously, burdened with the responsibility of the custody of such costly gems, I might have risen in my sleep and in a somnolent state removed the pearls to some other hiding place. No, I decided, that theory was too preposterous and absurd for even a moment's consideration.

If I had done that in my sleep I must also have restored them to the safe again in my sleep. It was far more likely that the thief, becoming alarmed over the publicity brought to the Granddeck by the murder, had been afraid to attempt to dispose of gems so well-known as the Gaston pearls and had restored them in the same mysterious way that he had abstracted them. I suggested this theory to Gorman.

"Nothing doing," he sneered. "Any crook daring enough to steal those pearls, once he had got his hands on them, never would return them. Pearls are too easily disposed of. You've got to dig up a better explanation than that."

"What did Mr. Gaston think? What did he say when he found them there?"

"He had nothing to say. He was so tickled at finding them again that he hustled with them right away to the safe deposit vaults and did not rest until he had them safely locked up. He took both jewel cases with him and made me go along with him to protect them."

"Didn't you look at all for the secret passageway I told you about?"

Good Old Fashioned Faith —That's What The World Needs Most

WHAT is the cure for the world's present troubles—for unrest and envy and covetousness and fear?

Legislation? Industrial compromises? Political readjustments? We've tried them all, and they do not satisfy.

We're hungry and thirsty for Faith.

"The world needs a genuine religious revival," cabled the London financial editor of the New York Evening Post recently. And he added: "This is the view of hard-headed business men."

What business men are now proclaiming the churches have always proclaimed. You must touch the spirits of men if you are to change their lives: only to the extent of their faith in each other can they work together. All remedies are makeshifts except the Golden Rule.

Thirty denominations, knowing the need to be too great for any one denomination to meet alone, are cooperating in a nationwide campaign.

It is a campaign for deepening the spiritual forces of men; for enlisting their hearts, and their pocket-books too. And every man and woman who loves America will be glad of a chance to help.

For the hope of America is Democracy and the Founder of Democracy was the Founder of the Church. It was He who first called men sons of God, and so made all men brothers.

Not as employers and employees, not as members of parties or sects, but as sons of God and brothers all let us work out our problems together.

To strengthen the Church is our first great task; out of the Church flows Faith.

Y. W. C. A. DISPENSES ROUGE THAT WON'T COME OFF

THE problem of a summer vacation is solved for thousands of industrial and business girls all over the country by the Y. W. C. A. camps for self-supporting women. "All the comforts of camp" can be had at a minimum price, well within the reach of the youngest girls.

Two weeks of swimming, canoeing, tennis, bacon bats and hikes make the fat girls thin and the thin girls fat and give them all complexions that won't come off. A group of vacationists are shown in the above picture in their outdoor sleeping quarters.

The problems of production and of living conditions, which the industrial girl faces for the other fifty weeks of the year, will be among the vital topics taken up at the Sixth Convention of the Young Women's Christian Association of America, which will meet in Cleveland on the 15th of April.

must find that secret passageway and see whether it led. That, with our knowledge of the identity of the telephone girl and the possibility of proving Gorman's belief that Wick was an ex-convict, seemed likely to be my only salvation. Old Rufus must find that passageway. He must! He must!

For hours I lay there racking my brains over the unsolvable problem. My luncheon was brought in, but I waved it away untouched. Wearily I wondered whether the recovery of the pearls had destroyed my aged relative's faith in me, as it seemed to have destroyed Gorman's. I could hardly blame him for doubting me. The great value of the pearls had been motive enough for their theft, but what possible motive could there have been for the thief returning them?

With a shock it came to me, too, that the restoration of the pearls practically upset the whole theory of my defense. If I could have established the fact of this theft, a jury might be persuaded to believe my tale of anonymous notes, mysterious whispers, and a secret passageway by which the thief had gained access to the apartment, but without the motive of theft, my story, unsupported by witnesses and uncorroborated by physical evidence, surely would be incredible.

well the bitter fact that once a man is discredited, henceforth no one trusts him. If Rufus Gaston failed me at this juncture I did not see how I could possibly extricate myself unscathed from the web that unscrupulous hands had so skillfully and maliciously woven around me. The only ray of comfort that I could find anywhere in the whole situation was in my firm belief that though old Rufus and Gorman and the whole world doubted me, Barbara Bradford—my Barbara, I ventured to call her in my innermost heart—would continue to believe in me. She would be sure, no matter how much appearances went against me, that I was telling the truth, Barbara and I knew. Been if she had not known that I could not possibly have fired the shot that killed

Miss Luton. I was certain that she still would have trusted me.

Thinking about Barbara I recalled that it was the day of her sister's wedding. I had one of the prison attendants get me the evening papers to see what they had to say about it, for I was fearful lest some breath of scandal at the last moment involving the Bradfords might bring about a postponement. Eagerly I was hoping that nothing had happened to prevent the marriage taking place. With the fortunes of her sister assured and her mother's future safe, I realized that the course of my relations with Barbara would be likely to be much smoother sailing, provided of course that I was acquitted. In the few chats I had had with her, I had realized that wealth and luxury and social position meant nothing to Barbara's happiness. She was the sort of girl who for a man she loved gladly would have poverty, hardship, everything—a sincere, true-hearted woman with a clear vision of the real value of existence.

YOUNG GIRLS MADE STRONG

Mrs. Boyd Tells How Her Daughter Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Danville, Ill.—"My daughter was very delicate and we thought we could not raise her. She was troubled with irregularity and she was not able to go to school. For a year we gave her all kinds of tonics but to no good. One day one of your little books was thrown on our porch and I saw what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and what it might do for her. Now she is getting fat and goes to school every day. You can tell every mother what the Vegetable Compound has done for my daughter."

Mrs. J. H. Boyd, 1022 N. Jackson St., Danville, Ill.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Boyd did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, headache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years' experience is at your service.

FINE SHOW AT SOISSON

Capacity Audience Thoroughly Enjoys "My Soldier Girl"

Connellsville theatre goers who saw "My Soldier Girl" last night at the Soisson theatre were pleased with the entire performance. It was one of the best musical comedies appearing here this season. The scenery was beautiful especially in the second act which is laid on a New York 100' garden. The costumes of the pretty chorus girls striking and the song numbers tuneful and catchy. Among the favorite numbers were "Wrap Me Up in a Bundle of Love," "My Soldier Girl" and "Lullaby for You." Dorothy Garrigue who appeared as Dixie Harris is pretty, has a rich voice and is a clever dancer. Joan Knox is a charming in the role of Mabel Parke, a nun of Dixie.

Comedy of the evening was furnished by Billy Moore and Bill Murphy who with their dancing and singing made a big hit with the audience. Charles Larive, Dan Tren, Clyde Oney and Prescott Burch, a quartet formerly of the Polies scored a big hit. James LeRoy and Leslie Jones, also formerly of the Polies, were especially adapted to the roles in which they appeared. The house was sold out.

You May Find It In Stocking

Cincinnati authority says your troublesome corns just loosen and fall off.

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes just loosen in their sockets and fall off the next day if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of a drug called frezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

You merely put a drop or two of this frezone on the tender, touchy corn today and instantly the corn stops hurting, then tomorrow sometime you may find the old torturous pest somewhere in your stocking, having fallen off entirely without a particle of soreness, pain or irritation. The skin surrounding and beneath the former corn will be as healthy, pink and smooth as the palm of your hand.

A quarter ounce of frezone is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn and callus, and any druggist will charge but a few cents for it. It is a compound made from ether.—Adv.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of stock and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promise of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Conneltsville Courier. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Regular Habits Produce a Beautiful Complexion

Daily elimination rids the system of poisons.
Women should realize that!

MANY women complain daily of their complexion, of their headaches and general ill health, little realizing that the trouble is constipation. Women, too, are much more subject to such congestion than men, and much more careless of it. The result is seen in lusterless, weary eyes in "allow," pimply complexion in lassitude, bad breath, and in that word so often used, "indisposed."

At the first sign of these symptoms the wise woman will take a laxative and will see that the young girl and others in her care do likewise. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite with thousands of women because it is mild and gentle in its action and in the end trains the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally without the aid of medicine.

This combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin which can be bought at any drug store is also a very sterling first aid in colds, fevers and other sudden ills that make it advisable to always have a bottle in the home. It is free from narcotics and safe for the tiniest baby.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Minn.

BASEBALL CLUB WILL HOLD WEEKLY MEETING TONIGHT

Tonight the Connellsville baseball club will hold its regular weekly meeting at the club's headquarters in the Second National Bank building. The same that were collected by the various members will be checked up and then the club will be in a position to know how much money it will have to spend on that all important item, seats.

Business Manager Bob McDowell is getting a long line with his schedule of games. Among the teams he has scheduled to play are the American Club of Braddock, the Fairbanks of Pittsburgh, the Turtle Creek Athletic Club of Erie, the J. B. Kiley club of the South Side, Pittsburgh and others. This means that this club will witness some fast ball games this coming season.

BASEBALL CHIRTS.

The Trotter team went through its first workout of the season yesterday on its grounds at Trotter. The boys got plenty of exercise and "saw" some of the best pitching of the season.

Newt Wilson, one of the best boosters for baseball in the town, is now getting up a team to play the Connellsville Independents. Some games so far the big team will have plenty of practice before it starts to play its scheduled games. It has secured the following players for its team: Larry Snyder, Rhetack, Focall, Kettler, John H. Fisher, B. Linder, Spiller, R. Wilson, Cover, Beucher, and the old hand himself, Newt Wilson. Manager McDowell is sure the word and he will be ready to start.

Manager Beucher of the Baltimore Orioles is busy rounding up his players as he wants to get some early practice. If there are any players that would like to try for the team, Beucher would be pleased to hear from them.

Evidently the signing of Schmidt by the Pirates means that Pittsburgh will now be able to play ball today by the press reports the outcome of games to be played depended entirely on Walter.

BASKETBALL DRIBBLERS.

The Connellsville High basketball team is endeavoring to get the school authorities to present the trophies of the teams with some kind of a gift in recognition of their good playing during the past year. It seems that other schools give to each player a gold or silver watch fob in the form of a basketball or a sweater for their good showing in the cage. Should the school authorities fail to grant the favor the boys are seriously thinking of getting the fobs through public subscription.

TRACK AND FIELD.

Coach Jack Hall took his squad of track and field boys out on the track yesterday in the first time since the cold spell hit this burg. The students

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Connellsville woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy headaches and kidney or bladder trouble should be glad to hear that Connellsville woman's experience.

Mrs. M. Thorne, 209 N. 1st St., says Doan's Kidney Pills have been used with very good results in our family. I myself have found them an excellent remedy for backache and kidney irregularities. At times my back got lame and sore and pained in a dull nagging way. Often it became so bad I would go down with the pain and then I would suffer from severe headaches and dizziness. My system would be entirely out of order and I would feel miserable. At such times I always used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time all the trouble would disappear. I get Doan's at Harnett's Drug Store and I keep them on hand all the time.

Mr. Benjamin Bailer Tells How Cuticura Healed Blotches

"My face became full of blotches on the cheeks and forehead. My skin became very rough and scaly and I was ashamed to appear in public. This caused much suffering and the blotches itched and burned very much and at times the pain became so intense I could not sleep. The trouble was almost unbearable. Then came pimples the largest and most painful I ever saw."

"After suffering about five months I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used a free sample, and bought more, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and I was healed." (Signed) Benjamin Bailer, 358 Canwell St., Phila., Pa.

The House of Whispers

My messenger returned with the newspapers, and as I picked them up, everything went black. "Millionaire Gaston Found Murdered," was the startling headline that flashed before me, right there in the column next to the account of the Bradford wedding. The sinister effect of this terrible news dawned on me instantly. With my great-uncle Rufus dead, without the possibility of his corroborating any part of my story, my case was hopeless, desperate. Unquestionably it would mean that I would be found guilty of murder and sentenced to death in the electric chair. As soon as I could sufficiently compose myself I read every word there was in the newspapers about this new tragedy, smiling grimly at the thought that at least they could not blame this murder on me.

"Millionaire Gaston Found Murdered," Was the Startling Headline That Flashed Before Me.

Mr. Gaston, it appeared, had come to the Granddick about ten o'clock in the morning and had gone at once to his apartment. On his arrival he had been greeted by the telephone girl and had informed her that he was only in the city for a few days and was staying at a hotel. He had added that he would not be occupying the apartment for several weeks until his wife's return to the city. About half-past twelve there had come a telephone call for him. The girl had been unable to get any response from the apartment. Knowing that he had not gone out, and fearing that he might have had a sudden attack of illness, she had become alarmed and notified Mr. Wick, the superintendent.

The superintendent, the account continued, had summoned Mr. Henry Kent, the owner of the Granddick apartments. Together they had gone to Mr. Gaston's rooms. Being unable to get any reply to repeated rings and knocks they had finally let themselves in with a pass key in possession of the owner of the building.

In his study, in the rear, of the apartment they were horrified to find old Rufus Gaston, fully clothed, lying on the floor, face down, stone dead. A great wound on the back of his head showed that he had been killed, probably instantly, by a terrific blow from some sort of a blunt instrument. A search of the rooms failed to show any sort of a weapon.

The police theory was that the crime was undoubtedly the work of a burglar who had been trapped by the return of Mr. Gaston so unexpectedly to his apartment. How the murderer escaped after attacking Mr. Gaston was a puzzle to the detectives at work on the case. The superintendent of the building expressed the opinion that the murderer had gained access in the guise of a meter inspector. Attendees in the hall recalled that there had been such a man in the building that morning. As he wore the usual uniform and presented the customary credentials, he had been permitted to enter and leave the building unmolested.

There followed a long review of Rufus Gaston's business career and an estimate of some of his extensive holdings in stocks, bonds and real estate, from which it appeared that his fortune was likely to run to over ten million dollars. It was with some surprise that I learned that a score or more of years ago the old man apparently had been a powerful figure in the life of the metropolis, active both in its business and social life.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

It Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

How Is Your Complexion?

A woman should grow more beautiful as she grows older and she will with due regard to baths, diet and exercise, and by keeping her liver and bowels in good working order. If you are haggard and yellow, your eyes losing their lustre and whites becoming yellowish, your flesh flabby, it may be due to indigestion or to a sluggish liver.
